Caro amigo:

On behalf of the Board of Editors of the Hispanic American Historical Review, I take pleasure in inviting you to serve as an Associate Editor for the regular term of five years 1957-1961. There are no specific responsibilities connected with this position, but we hope that you will be willing to give such advice and assistance as may be possible. In return, Duke University Press will send you a complimentary subscription for five years beginning with the February, 1957, issue.

It will be an honor for us to have you associated with the Review, and I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely yours,

Lewis Hanke
