Prezado amigo:

With this letter I take pleasure in sending you a statement on a dissertation being prepared at Columbia University by Mr. E. Bradford Burns under my direction. I feel certain that this subject will interest you and that you will be able to give him valuable advice when he reaches Brazil sometime in late April. Meanwhile, if you have any particular suggestions, please write to him directly at his New York address.

My article on "The Portuguese in Spanish America" is now being printed in Mexico and a copy will shortly be sent to you.

With best wishes for the holiday season.

Cordially yours,

Jervis Hanks

P.S. I have never received a copy of your Paraiso and would be happy to have one if you happen to have an extra copy.
